He will stand for season of 1902 at Sherman's barn. J. W. STETTER. Owner.

A LITTLE NONSENSE. Wit and Humor Blended by an Expert in the Business. "We can furnish you with any kind of a cage made," read the advertisement of the truthful man, "and when it comes to a monkey cage, why, we're right in it."

Church—What on earth are they ringing that bell so long for? Gotham—That's to call a meeting together. "What sort of a meeting?" "Meeting of the Society For the Prevention of Unnecessary Noises."

"Why do you call this South Carolina salad?" asked the man from the north, who was traveling in the south. "Because it's like our people—popular," replied the native. "Oh, I thought it was because it never agreed with anybody."

Patience—Did you hear that Miss Fussanfeather talk about her barber? Isn't she mannish? Patrice—No; perhaps she's going to marry a barber.

Footlight—What does he call his race horse? Sue Brette—Actor. "Why that name?" "Because he follows the tracks." —Yonkers Statesman.

Better Left Unsaid. Illustration of a man and a woman in a room. The man is sitting at a table, and the woman is standing by him. They appear to be in a conversation.

"No doubt you think I'm older than I really am." "Not at all. I'm sure you are not half as old as you look."

Noah's Sarcasm. Noah's wife, who was sitting on the quarter deck, was dissatisfied. "Noah," she said, pointing to the aggregation of animals, "if people should see me in such company what would they think?" "They would probably think you were Mme. Zoza, the lady who enters the lions' cage in some trained animal show," responded Noah, with rare good humor. And picking up the paper he again scanned the weather report. —Indianapolis Sun.

Hangin' On. Lariat Luke—What became of that hanger on from th' east? Horrible Hank—He's still hangin' on. Lariat Luke—Down at the Red Eye saloon? Horrible Hank—Naw; hangin' on tew a cottonwood tree at th' edge of town.—Ohio State Journal.

At the Sunday School Picnic. The Superintendent—Now, children, why do we leave to go to the beautiful parks? What do we find there that is always fresher and purer than it is in the city? Truthful Tommy (with cheerful promptness)—Popcorn, sir!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Her Higher Life. "Do you find it difficult to attend to your social duties and keep up on the art and literature of the times?" "Oh, no; I always try to devote at least fifteen minutes a day to art and literature."—Chicago Record-Herald.

He Got Hot. "What's the row?" asked the manager of the dime museum. "The fire eater went into the restaurant next door," answered the bearded lady, "and asked for a light lunch, and they set him out a candle and a box of matches."—Toledo Bee.

Then the Temperature Fell. Ella—Yesterday was my birthday, and Fred sent me a rose for each year of my age. I don't see how he knew how old I was. Stella—Very likely he didn't. Probably he took all the roses the florist had.—New York Press.

What, Indeed? Cycler—I see they are wearing peg top trousers for bicycling this summer. Old Joaker—Well, what could be more appropriate for a spin?—Judge.

AN IVORY ARROW. An Eskimo arrow of walrus ivory found imbedded deep in the breast of a Canadian gray goose is on exhibition in a gun store at Spokane. The goose was shot a few days ago by John Cochran near Liberty lake. As he picked up the big honker, weighing fourteen pounds, he was surprised to see a little piece of ivory sticking out from its breast for two inches. With difficulty he pulled it out, for the flesh had grown around the object. Then he saw that it was an arrow eight inches long and about as thick as a lead pencil. The carvings on the stem where it was tied to the arrow stick are still visible. No arrow of the sort was ever seen here before. The bird evidently carried it thousands upon thousands of miles from the far north, where it was shot by some Eskimo. —Spokane Spokesman-Review.

A Runaway Locomotive. About ten years ago I called upon Chauncey M. Depew at his home, 27 West Fifty-fourth street, writes Tip in the New York Press. He was at dinner, and in that friendly way of his sent word that he would be up in two minutes; I must make myself at home, etc. As it was a professional call and I was seeking an interview I bided my time. On the mantelpiece in the reception room was a diminutive locomotive, which I investigated. It appeared to be a model of one of the New York Central flippers, but I had no idea that the thing had motion. We got down on the floor together, and suddenly it started off at a mile a minute (more or less), tearing along the hall with me after it. The blamed little thing ran straight into the dining room and was caught under the table by Mr. Depew himself.

Will Shorten His Signature. Stress of business and the dearth of time will lead to a change in President Roosevelt's signature. He has always been accustomed to write out his first name in full, but he finds that it will save him about 50 per cent of time and trouble to make it simply T. Roosevelt. Where a man has to sign his name about 1,000 times a day, it makes a big difference. There is a man in the office of the auditor for the postoffice department who, it is said, owes his appointment largely to the fact that his signature contains but five letters. He is Second Deputy Auditor K. Chew. He does little but sign his name, and he does that for about eight hours a day steadily.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL. G. W. Burge returned yesterday from Omaha where he had been with a shipment of cattle. Mrs. Phillips left for Omaha yesterday morning to enter a hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis. A brother of Dr. Shockley has typhoid fever. He is being cared for by a nurse from the Clarksox hospital at Omaha. Sheriff Layport received a handsome present this week of a fine buggy which was sent by his father from Marshalltown Iowa. E. L. Hutchinson, of Penbrook, came up last Saturday and remembered the editor with a dollar. His daughters will attend our school this winter. B. F. Sharp and wife returned Wednesday morning to their home at Albalowa, after a two weeks visit with W. H. McCloud and family. Mrs. Sharp is a daughter of W. H. McCloud.

We are instructed to say that the Gordon base ball nine will be down to play Valentine nine next Wednesday Sept. 11, and the following day will play Ft. Niobrara. Come all ye sports and see these games.

A friend says he would not do without the DEMOCRAT and says he is going to bring us in a ten dollar bill in a few days. We'll have to go out on a trot to spend that much money, but bring her in we'll try to take care of it.

Geo. Brown, of Nerden, came over today and says the wheat, corn and oats is very good in their vicinity and if the frost holds off for 15 days longer the corn crop will average not less than 25 bushels per acre. That is good for what was expected at one time to be a failure.

The Valentine public schools opened Monday morning with the following teachers, high school principal, Prof. R. H. Watson; ass't principal, Miss Nelson; grammar department, Miss Holcomb; 1st intermediate, Margaret Robinson; 2nd intermediate, Cora Thackrey; primary, Miss Muchmore; 2nd primary, Mrs. Mabel Vaughn. The enrollment up to yesterday noon was 250 and there are a good many who have not yet started. Valentine is justly proud of her public school and we believe we have as fine a building, as fully equipped with libraries and apparatus and as good a corps of teachers as any town of our size in the state.

Four bald headed men took the Oriental last night. The M. W. A. Lodge, of Simeon, will soon unite with our lodge. Lets have a big meeting when they come in. At the senatorial convention last Saturday A. M. Morrissey was the unanimous choice for State Senator. He has twice been elected Co. Attorney and is a popular man in this district.

Amos Goodwin, a ranch hand, was run over and killed by the east bound freight No. 25 yesterday near Eli. He was stealing aride when it is supposed he fell under the wheels with the above result. Dr. Lewis was summoned to hold an inquest.

J. Hughes, of Sparks, was kicked in the face by one of his horses while watering them Tuesday. He was brought to the City hotel and Dr. Lewis was called to dress the wounds which proved to be only flesh wounds there being no bones broken.

Farmer Vanassel, McFarrich, Agt. McNethey and a score of Indians are up to Deadwood attending U. S. Court this week. Several cases are up for trial against Indians, the most important of which is the charge against Walking Shield for the murder of a woman because she would not consent to his marriage with her daughter.

Gen. P. H. Barry, candidate for congress stopped off here today to get acquainted with our business men while enroute westward. The General is looking hale and hearty and expressed his regrets that he hadn't time to go down to the post to pay his respects to the commanding officer. Mr. Barry is Brigadier General commanding the first brigade of the Nebraska National Guards. Later the General hopes to be with us again and will then visit the post.

A two gallon jug being noticed in the postoffice window a few days ago the curiosity of some of our young people to know what the jug contained prompted them to examine the label and found it to read "embalming fluid" from a firm in Des Moines Ia, consigned to C. J. O'Conner, of Chesterfield. The DEMOCRAT is now wondering and the young folks are looking scared and perhaps also seized with wonder as to what kind of an undertaking establishment Mr. O'Conner is running or whether he is just simply embalming beef. It's up to Mr. O'—to explain to the ladies.

We acknowledge receipt of a book entitled "Battles and Biographies of Missourians" or the Civil War Period of our state by W. L. Webb, of Independence, Mo., who is now on the editorial staff of the Independence Sentinel. This book is sent us by request of our Uncle, Frank Alley, of Cockrell, Mo., and to whom we extend our sincere thanks. The book portrays the events in that part of Mo. where the civil war fare was most bitter, where every field was a battlefield before the war was over. Those interested are invited to call and examine the most thrilling account of the warfare in Mo. that we have ever seen and knowing many of the men, or their progenitors and having several times traversed the country over, we feel that this book is indeed a treasure. To the editor of the Sentinel we also extend courtesies and hope to become better acquainted.

One of the most popular and successful business men of Cherry County is Max E. Viertel, the Crookston merchant. With good business ability and an opportunity most people are successful but not all of them are pleasant men who enjoy themselves with their friends and are pleasant men to meet at any time though we believe Cherry County has as large a percentage anywhere in the state. Mr. Viertel came to this county from Stevensport Wjs. in the spring of '86 and for 13 years worked in the store of F. H. Baumgartel, of Crookston. Three years ago last June Mr. Viertel purchased the store of Mr. Baumgartel, who had become his father-in-law, and has since that time conducted the business himself. As a business man Mr. Viertel has made a success and is a liberal advertiser. He has served two terms as county commissioner, the first by appointment, and has lost none of his popularity because of the office. Mr. Viertel is a native of Germany, born in 1863 and at the age of 19 years started for America to avoid enlisting in the army. He landed in New York on July 4, 1882 and found the people firing cannons and celebrating in grand style. It was a favorable reception into America and Max declares that they have celebrated the 4th of July ever since.

When Dipping Cattle. Remember that the coal tar dips are the best and safest for mange, itch lice and ticks; that Lee's Carbolic Dip, made by Geo. H. Lee Co. of Omaha, is the best of coal tar dips; that this dip sells at 65 cents per gallon in barrels and that it has the indorsement of the Nebraska State Experiment Station and of hundreds of prominent stockmen.

Ordinance No. 92. An Ordinance to provide for the closing of saloons on Sunday and at certain hour of the night and prescribing penalty for violation, and to repeal Ordinance No. 39 entitled "Establishing ordinance relative to closing saloons Sunday". Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person licensed to sell malt, spirituous or vinous liquors in the village of Valentine, to open or keep open his saloon or place of business where such liquors are kept for sale on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or to sell or give away under any pretense whatsoever to any person or persons during said day any malt spirituous or vinous liquors. For the purpose of this ordinance a saloon shall be considered open if persons are permitted to enter or to go out of same. Provided, the owner and his employees may be permitted to enter or to retire. Section 2. That for the purposes of this ordinance the first day of the week shall be understood to include the time between the hour of twelve o'clock mid-night preceding and the hour of twelve o'clock mid-night following the said first day of the week. Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person licensed to sell liquors as above mentioned in the village of Valentine, to keep a saloon open or to sell any malt, spirituous or vinous liquors after the hour of eleven o'clock p. m. on any day of the week, and if any person or persons other than the proprietor and his regular employees shall enter or go out of any saloon, or place where liquors are kept for sale after eleven o'clock p. m. and before four o'clock a. m., it shall be considered a violation of this ordinance. Section 4. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof before the police judge, be fined in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars and costs of prosecution, and shall stand committed until fines and costs are paid. Section 5. Ordinance No. 59 entitled "Entitled an ordinance relative to closing saloons on Sunday", and all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law. GEORGE ELLIOTT, Chairman. SEAL Attest: A. M. MORRISSEY, Clerk.

Ordinance No. 93. An ordinance to provide for the appointment of village officers, and fixing the salary, term and duties of the same: Section 1. There shall be appointed by the chairman and board of trustees at the first regular meeting, after its organization, in each year and at such other times as there may be vacancies in any of the offices hereinafter designated, the following village officers: A village marshal, and such special police as the board may at any time determine by resolution; a street commissioner; a water commissioner; a village treasurer; a village clerk; a village attorney; and three members of the board of health each of whom shall hold his office for the term of one year, or until his successor is appointed and qualified. Provided, that any of the officers herein named may be removed at any time by resolution of the board. Section 2. The salary of the said village officers shall be such sum as may be fixed by resolution of the board at the time of their appointment, and shall be payable quarterly, but not exceeding the following amounts: The Village Marshal three hundred dollars per annum; special police two dollars per day for the time actually employed; street commissioner forty dollars per annum; village treasurer nothing; village clerk one hundred dollars per annum; village attorney one hundred dollars per annum. Section 3. Each officer in this ordinance designated, except members of the board of health, shall give bond with good and sufficient sureties conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. Said bonds for the several respective officers to be in the penal sum as follows: Village Marshal $500.00; each police man $50.00; Water Commissioner $500.00; Village Treasurer $500.00; Clerk $500.00; Attorney $500.00. Section 4. The bonds and oaths of the respective officers shall be filed with the village Clerk before they enter upon the discharge of their duties as such officers. Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law, and all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict or inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed. GEORGE ELLIOTT, Chairman. SEAL Attest: A. M. MORRISSEY, Clerk.
